

PRESS RELEASE

TTS moved its headquarters do Miami, Florida

April 5th, 2023

TTS is excited to announce that it's moving its headquarters from Lisbon to Miami. This move is a part of TTS's expansion plans, the goal is to offer the best service to their clients and help travel agencies to grow their business.

"We are extremely excited to announce that we will be relocating our headquarters to Miami," expressed Rui Figueiredo, CEO of TTS. "This significant move is a crucial step in our company's expansion plan, enabling us to better serve our clients around the world, especially in the Americas, and to continue providing innovative travel technology."

TTS's new headquarters will be in downtown Miami, with proximity to key business locations. The new space will provide TTS with the room it needs to continue growing and expanding its operations. Despite the move, TTS will maintain its offices in Lisbon and its research center in the Azores, Portugal.
